DID YOU KNOW...?

"On October 12, 1517, the king left San Vicente very ill and in a bad way. For this reason he did not make that day more than two leagues of land to a town called Treceño, where he ate and spent the night (...) In the place of Treceño there was a beautiful mud house

"This town of Treceño is located between two high mountains. At the foot of the mountain there are two springs, one of fresh water and the other of salt water, from which they make good salt, (...)
